Cr.MMO No.99 of 2006.

4.5.2007. Present: None for the petitioner.

Mr. P.M. Negi, Dy. Advocate General, for respondent No.2.

Reply has been filed by the respondent-State supported by the affidavit of the Superintendent of Police, Chamba. It has, inter alia, been stated in the reply that FIR No.101/2006 has been registered against the petitioner on 28th May, 2006 under Section 302 read with Section 201 of the Indian Penal Code and after completion of the investigation in the case a police challan had since been presented against the petitioner in the Court of competent jurisdiction on 12th October, 2006. The petitioner accordingly is facing trial in the aforesaid case.

In view of the aforesaid contents of the reply, I feel that no interference of this Court in this case is called for or warranted. The petitioner-accused is at liberty to raise and urge all points and defences before the learned trial Court.

The petition is dismissed.
